COUNCILLOR REPORTS

Councillor Nathorst

Community Futures: Completing the last couple of meetings before the replacement starts. Looking forward to meeting with the Fire Chief to begin attending regular meetings.

Councillor Lang

Anyone requiring a COVID vaccination can visit the medical clinic in Midway. The province-wide fire ban is set to take affect on Wednesday, June 30th. Midway has put in place a municipal fire restriction. Should Greenwood consider a similar restriction?

Motion: C. Lang / J. Nathorst
 THAT the City of Greenwood restricts all open fires in City limits until further notice.

(91-21)

Carried

Councillor Bolt

Hospital Board report, as provided.

Councillor Seymour

Library Board: 1.) The existing entry door is too heavy for auto-door open and closing system. 2.) Library is looking to install a heap filtration system to maintain good air quality. 3.) Next regular board meeting is August 18th.

MAYOR'S REPORT

Please keep an eye on your neighbours during the extreme heat wave. Thank you to all the downtown businesses who have cleaned up their buildings – they look great. Looking forward to a good summer.

PEACE OFFICER'S REPORT

None

ADMINISTRATORS REPORT

Monday's office closure to the public has made a difference for staff productivity. The lift stations are experiencing pump failure due to unsafe materials (e.g. baby wipes). Notice to be sent out to make the public aware and help avoid further problems.
